What is Manglik Horoscope??

The person who has mars in the Lagna, fourth, seventh, eighth or twelfth house is considered a manglik, that means mars will be a road block in their marriage life. Other than the houses mentioned above, some scholar belived that a person can be called a manglik if they have mars on their second house. Hence, if the groom has mars on any of the houses mentioned above and the bride doesn't have any then the effect will be troublesome for the bride and vice-versa. Same situations of mars can also be deadly for the bridegroom.

Note : Only this yog cannot become the reason for someone's death; for that many points are to be considered while analyzing the horoscope. We at www.kundli.click dont Support Baseless Conclusions, that are made from outside of Astrological Rules.

Why mars is considered the only painful planet when it comes to marriage life?

There are planet as sinful as mars in the home (Twelfth, Fourth, Seventh, or Eighth) as reflected in the horoscope of the bride or groom then how it will affect their married life?

Mars is the prime planet of fire element - Anger or Violence, unlike Saturn (Shani) who by disease, slowly inflicts trouble, mars, when the situation is unfavourable, damages the married life quickly by anger and or violence or sometimes an injury due to an accident. As the mangal who is sitting on the twelfth aspect looks upon the marital harmony of the 7th aspect with the full view of 8th sign the mars sitting on a house does same and looks on the 7th aspect with the full 7th sight. Mangal sitting on the 4th house looks at the 7th aspect with the 4th sight and by sitting on the 7th, mangal itself becomes a barrier for the comforting aspect due to its cruel nature. It is seen that mars located in the horoscope as on the eighth aspect brings or develops animosity with the family of bride or groom and because of that it affects the relation between them. It is believed that the twelfth house is related with the sexual life of bride and groom, mars sitting on this house becomes a barrier on this too. Here, mars causes the bride and groom to think violent thought during sex. Fourth house is related to married life and material prosperity. On the eighth house, mars can cause an unfavorable effect on the personal harmony of the couple. Eighth house is related to the widowhood of bride/groom. Because the eighth house is twice of the seventh house. It makes the couple think about family and household. Hence Mars, If having a position or looks or either of these two houses destroys the prosperity of the household in any way. Other houses apart from the above mentioned shall be taken into account and the astrologer should discuss that the reflection of mars should be viewed through ascendant's house or moon's ascendant. Many astrologers look only ascendant horoscope. Whereas in the Parashara's theory along with discussing the ascendant horoscope and moon's ascendant [ the impact of mars ] It is Important for the astrologer to discuss the ascendants of bride and groom by taking Jupiter as the bride's ascendant planet and Venus (Shukra) as the groom's ascendant planet. In addition while studying the manglik defect, astrologer should also study the moon horoscope, Venus horoscope and Jupiter horoscope because ascendant is the body, moon is mind and venus is representative of Sex (coition) now the things is to look out far is out of ascendant, moon and other horoscopes which of these having the most impact on the boy or girl. Others made their impact too. Not as much as the dominating one. So, while discussing the horoscope, the dominating one should be preferred. Others should be kept in mind too but as compares to the first, it should be less.

Cancellation of Manglik Yog defect

While Studying the horoscope of the both girl and boy and both of them turns out to be manglik Connection (Yog) and it is the best Mangli Matching. Other than that if any of the bride / groom is manglik and other has sun, Saturn (Shani) or Dragons Head (Rahu) sitting on any of the house like first, second, fourth, seventh, eighth or twelfth then the manglik defect will be eradicated. Some of the astrologers misunderstood the facts related to this original verses. According to them, if in any one of the person's horoscope, mangal is located on the house mentioned and in the same House Sun, Saturn or Rahu is placed on any of the houses then the defect of mangal on that person is automatically eradicated. Hence, it is not important that the life partners are also manglik. Their assumptions are totally wrong and they are giving it a bad meaning. They should know that if a person is already manglik ( Mars located in any of the house) and has either Sun, Saturn or Rahu that the manglik effect will be doubled / tripled. Avoidance is only done when in any of the bride/groom has mars in their horoscope and the other, if not mars, have either Sun, Saturn or Rahu.

Some scholars say that avoidance happens when their sun is in the ascendant or in the seventh house. Other than sun, there can also be saturn or rahu. But these scholars doesn't considered avoidance or any other houses. They say that 7th related to the life partner full stop mark and sit on the 12th house and look upon 7th house with full view but Saturn and Rahu cant look up on the 7th house while sitting on these houses then how come by sitting on 12th and 4th house can Saturn and Rahu can eradicate the Manglik defect in place of this they can have the same audience from 5th and 12th house because Saturn situated on 5th with full 3rd vision and Saturn situated on 10th with full 10th Vijay will look upon the 7th house from which that Manglik defect will work I like for all the respective brothers for all the respective brothers Gururji has only this to say that material relationships are not the case of 7th house only 12th house is related to luxury and sexual union. Sun Situated on the 12 house even if not looking at Saturn Rahu will destroy the pleasure of material and sexual union. Saturn or Rahu of 2nd house will create barriers on the prosperity of a family. 4th house Saturn or Rahu will destroy marital life. All of these delight are related with life partner and household luxuries. As a result the position of Sun, Saturn and Rahu sitting on the ascendant, 4th, 7th and 12th house makes the Mangal defect on the bride/ groom negligent. On the other hand, there are same situations where if not completely gave, Mangal defect lessons over the time.

If Mars is located on the 7th house or looks on the 7th house then the Mangal effect will be closer to none because first, No planet would want to damage their own house and second, by sitting on the 7th ( which provides marital prosperity ) the house will become powerful and will make it even more stronger by watching it. In both cases, mars will not harm the life partner. Like that, if Mars is the owner of the both centre and triangle it will not harm because it is the caretaking planet. If there is a cordiality between the horoscopes of bride-groom, counts as same, or more than 30 properties are matched then Mangal defect dies. If a person has a Manglik defect on his/her horoscope and their partner has a strong laganesh or saptamesh, so his/her life will not be in danger even if he/she is a Manglik defected but there might be some conflict between the bride and groom. If the groom is Mangal defected but on the other hand his saptmesh, 7th house and Venus are strong then her wife who has no Mangal defect will continue to lead a good marital life because where Mars who is the destroyer of bride prosperity, saptmesh and 7th house along with Venus are the indicator of bride prosperity. Hence both the defects will become equal.

On the other hand if a bride has mangal defect but her 7th house, saptamesh and Jupiter ( who is a factor of marriage) is strong and Jupiter is also on the centre of Venus, the defect of Mangal should not be taken into consideration. Thus, it is important to do an all round - check on the horoscope while discussing Manglik defect and an experience astrologer should be brought in.

Manglik Yog & Marriage

Tensions arise when the bride and groom come to know that both of them are Manglik. There is always an unknown pressure on their mind and relations are formed when they meet a Manglik defect. Sometimes, even after the Manglik matching, problems arise. So, what should be done to deal with the problems? And also, what are the cause and effect of Mangal defect? The only reason this is being written is that the readers should thoroughly know about the cause, effect and remedies of this defect. If Mars (Mangal) is situated on the ascendant 2nd, 4th, 7th, 8th and 12th house then the Mangal defect is born. Mars (Mangal) is a cruel, dark, violent, brave, multiplying, political and active planet. Having a Mangal defect on your Horoscope will lead to dispute, accidents, tension filled behaviour in intimate life, divorce and other unfavourable situations like death. The reason behind this is the properties of the planet. The effect is relatively low when Mars is favourable and stays on these houses.

1. Considerably, if both the bride and groom have Mangal defect then this mega defect dies.
2. If one is Manglik and the other one is not but the latter has Saturn or Rahu located in his/her 1st, 4th, 7th, 8th and 12th house then this defect fades out.
3. According to the famous astrology book 'Prashna-Marg' when Mars is on the same house and the ruler of that particular house is strong and guards that house along with Saptamesh or Venus is not at the 7th place. There is little chance that Mars will cause defect.
4. According to 'Bhavdeepika', If Mars is on the Venus horoscope and the ruler of the seventh house becomes strong and is in the central (Kendra) houses or in the triangle (Trikon) houses, the Mangal defect ends.
5. If Mars is in its higher horoscope Capricorn (Makar) or in the horoscope of itself Aries (Mesh), Scorpio (Vrischik) or in the year peer horoscope Leo (Simha), Sagittarius (Dhanu) and Pisces (Meen) then there is no Mangal defect.
6. If Jupiter has an Aspect (Drishti) on Mars then there is no Mars defect.

Other than the avoiding situations explained above there are other phenomena that make the Mangal defect ineffective and there are other special situations where these steps can be taken :- Mangal Yantra, Mangal peace ordination (Mangal Shanti Puja), aquarius marriage and regular Mangal worship can be performed to lessen the Mangal defect. Wearing Coral ring can be beneficial. Scholars have said that Mangal defect can last till 28 years. The concept of Mangal defect looks more orthodox than scientific. Mangal defect is not as dangerous as told by people.
